New, Community Volunteer Event to Heal Topanga Creek by Removing Invasive Weeds, Trash, and Debris and Planting Native Plants. The Program will also Educate the Public About the Importance of Native Plants.

Topanga, CA (November 12, 2019) - Will Geer's Theatricum Botanicum, Environmental Restoration Group, the Coastal Conservancy, and EcoMalibu are excited to announce a new environmental education program that uses community volunteers to heal Topanga Creek as it runs through the Theatricum Botanicum.

Will Geer's Theatricum Botanicum, a nonprofit organization located at 1419 N. Topanga Canyon Blvd., Topanga, CA 90290. Come join us to remove trash and debris, and invasive weeds so we can plant native stream side plants and protect the beautiful plants that already exist.

Volunteers will also learn about the importance of native plants and the issues caused by invasive weeds. Help us take care of this spectacular outdoor theatre perfectly situated among the California coast live oak trees and Topanga Creek! Learn about the environment while giving her a helping hand!

If you are at least 14 years of age we need your help removing weeds, trash, and other junk from majestic Topanga Creek so we can prepare it for beautiful native plants

Topanga Creek Clean up events will be held on Saturdays between 10 am and 1 pm on December 7 and 14
January 11 and 25
February 8 and 22
